

Report

The National Conference on Recent Strategies in Mechanical and Materials Engineering (RSMME'18) was successfully conducted on 16th March, 2018.

The National Conference on “Recent Strategies in Mechanical and Materials Engineering” being organized by Department of Mechanical Engineering Department of Adhi college of Engineering and Technology, Chennai was attended by more than 50 participants from colleges like Sree Vidyaniketan Engineering College – Tirupati, PSG Engineering College – Coimbatore, RMK Engineering College – Chennai, SA Engineering College – Chennai, .

The conference concluded with the valedictory function presided over by Dr. R. Prakash, Associate Professor at VIT, Vellore was the Guest of the Honour of the function. Mr.V.Paranthaman - Vice Principal, Dr. S. Harikrishnan – Head of the Mechanical Engineering Department & Convener, Dr. D. Palanisamy – Academic Coordinator & Secretary, Dr. I. Saravanan and Dr. ArulKirubakaran were also present on the occasion.

In his address, Dr. R. Prakash emphasised on the need for innovation and research in the area of Mechanical Engineering and spoke about the important role of mechanical engineers in modern manufacturing technologies and promotion of ‘Make In India’. He urged the participants to apply their innovative ideas and research to make India self-sufficient and to the benefit of the common man. He also stressed the importance of such conferences and with utmost gratitude to the participant for making the Conference a success.

During this Conference, a total seven keynote sessions were organized in which five speakers were from industry and two were from academic institutions. Out of the 75 research papers, 68 delegates presented during eight technical sessions on four broad themes.

The Vice-Principal, Convener, Secretary and other officials of the college felicitated the dignitaries by presenting mementos and certificates.