

Best Practices (2018-2019)

Adhi college of Engineering and Technology created research environment with well-built research equipment. This encouraged our research scholars and students towards research area.

We initiated lots of club activities which increased the participation of the students and it helped a lot to participate in the smart hackathon project.