About the CAREER ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM :

Mr. Charles Godwin, HR Services, Hexaware started the session with his brief biography so that it will be a real time example which will be followed by the students.He differentiated the students who scored high marks with less life skills and average marks with better skills.He recommended the students to undergo a lot of internship trainings and projects.

He also suggested to learn basic softwares in computer along with typewriting classes. Several examples were quoted from movies, so that it will enhance the listener without boredom.

The Students actively participated and interacted with him in an excellent manner. He taught about making resumes in a creative manner so that it differentiates oneself among the crowd. He advised people with 3 tag lines to live your dream, follow your heart and Be true to yourself. He insisted the students to follow four things in their life,

- Passion towards work
- Humility among people
- Integrity in the workplace
- Respect for the fellow beings

With the questionnaire and discussion the session came to an end. Then he interacted separately with Final year students regarding career development. He suggested the students to develop their communication and technical skills. The students cleared their individual doubts and got tips on how to face job challenges.
